V. TYPES OF ROTATION

Rotation is not to be confused with Transfer.

Rotation is the process of systematic designation and redesignation of an individual to various kinds of duty and training for the purpose of improving his capacity to serve the Agency while remaining on the rolls of his Sponsoring Office.

Transfer is the process of removing an individual from the rolls of one Office and his concurrent addition to the rolls of another Office. This process is independent of the process of rotation though it may be a consequence thereof.

EXCHANGE ROTATION

(No Rotation Slots needed)

LOAN ROTATION

(Rotation Slots needed)

Rotation assignments are for a minimum of Six Months

1. Man for Man Trade between two Offices. (It is not necessary that the two rotatees occupy reciprocal positions, but the value of the work and the level at which it is performed is approximately equivalent.)

2. The rotatee occupies a slot on the T/O of his own Sponsoring Office. Organization and Administrative control remains with the Sponsoring Office.

3. Operational and Functional control of the rotatee rests with the Receiving Office.

1. There is no Man for Man Trade, the Receiving Office not having a man available for rotation to the Sponsoring Office.

2. The rotatee goes into a Rotation Loan Slot allotted by the CIA Career Service Board to the Sponsoring Office. Organizational and Administrative control remains with the Sponsoring Office.

3. Operational and Functional control of the rotatee rests with the Receiving Office.
